Helping older adults live well in their community by providing a reliable and supportive transportation option to appointments.

Veiner Vintage Transport

Launching Spring 2023

Veiner Vintage Transport is a volunteer-based service for generations 50+ in Medicine Hat and surrounding area.

Eligible riders are folks who need transportation services due to income restrictions, do not drive, and are 50+.

Drivers will provide rides 8:00am - 4:30pm Monday - Friday.

Unison in Medicine Hat is based out of Veiner and Strathcona Centres. We provide programs, services, and activities for generations 50+ in the Medicine Hat and surrounding area.

Please note, we are not currently taking client applications at this time

Why Volunteer?

Volunteering....

Other Volunteer Opportunities

By volunteering at Veiner Centre we will provide you with volunteer opportunities where you will learn new skills, build connections with others, and help the community at the same time.

Whether you want to volunteer once a month or every day, the perfect volunteer job is waiting for you!

At Unison we love our volunteers, and we couldn't continue to support older adults the way we do without their help!

Our volunteers make us who we are! They are the heart of our Centre and of our Unison Community.

Some of our volunteer opportunities outside of the transportation service include:

- Meals on Wheels
- Reception
- Veiner Bistro
- Strathcona Centre
- Events
- Tax Clinic
- Wellness Connections
